VI. Old Business

a. Dispatch Meeting

Charlie attended the meeting at the Turner town office today. All the towns were there; no representative from Androscoggin Sheriff Department, Lewiston or Auburn. Charlie gave an overview of the meeting. Whatever way the Town of Greene decides to go with, will cost the town more. There will be equality between the costs to the towns. This should be resolved this year.

b. Tax Liens

Charlie reported the list is down to one page to be collected or agreement made between the Town Manager and the Tax payer. The Board will not take any action until after the holidays.

c. Fire Truck Sale

Charlie and the Board discussed selling the old truck the highway department got from the fire department. This was previously used to water the dirt roads. There is no pump on this now. Now the Highway Department has an old pumper truck from the fire department that is used to water dirt roads and used to flush out culverts,

The board agreed to sell the old truck.
